

CLASS: S3 GEOGRAPHY AND ENVIRONMENT HOLIDAY PACKAGE EXERCISES

- 1.a) List four river of Rwanda and state their sources.
 - b) Examine the importance of rivers and lakes to the socio-economic development of Rwanda.
- 2.a) Analyze the causes of wetland destruction in Rwanda.
 - b) Explain the measures put in place to ensure sustainable utilization of wetlands in Rwanda.
3. “Drainage systems and human activities are inseparable.” Discuss.
4. a) Define a rural settlement
 - b) Giving examples, discuss four types of rural settlement that are found in Rwanda.
 - c) List five characteristics of rural settlements in Rwanda.
- 5.a) Explain five factors that influence rural settlements in Rwanda.
 - b) List three problems of rural settlements and give their solutions.
 - c) Discuss in detail Rwanda’s government policy to rural settlements.
- 6.To what extent has climate of Rwanda been influenced by altitude.
7. Rwanda is a few miles away from the equator, yet her climate is not truly equatorial. Discuss.
- 8.Giving specific examples, examine the causes of semi-arid conditions in some parts of Rwanda.
9. Imagine you are appointed to be the minister for environment in Rwanda what would you make the climate and environment of Rwanda better than they are today.
 - 10.Explain any four reasons why Pluto was removed among the planets of the solar system?
 11. Discuss the impact of faulted landforms on the East African landscape and drainage.
 12. Explain the significance of folded relief features in the socio-economic development of East Africa.
 13. With specific examples, explain the importance of warping on drainage system of Africa.
 14. To what extent has vulcanicity shaped the nature of landscape of East Africa?
 15. Critically examine the effects of either Tsunami in Japan or earthquake in Haiti on the World economic development.
16. Assume that you are appointed as Director General of Rwanda Environmental Management Authority (REMA), what are measures that you should reinforce in order to conserve the basin lakes and wetlands found in Eastern province.
17. “Human activities depend upon climate and weather conditions of an area” with relevant examples in Africa, support this statement.
18. (a) Briefly describe the characteristics of Rwandan climate,
 - (b.) Explain the factors influencing the climate of Rwanda.
- 19.a. With aid of diagram describe the structure of atmosphere.
 - b. To what extent atmosphere plays a considerable role in regulating/control negative effects of solar radiation?
20. Identify the factors that affect the rate of population growth and explain why this is an important aspect in population studies of a given area.

21. Compare and contrast the population problems associated with developed and developing countries.

22. a) Describe the characteristics of youthful stage of a river profile.

b) Explain any four processes through which river transports its loads.

c) Explain how the following types of lakes are formed.

i) Lake Victoria?

ii) Lake Mugesera?

iii) Burera and Ruhondo Lakes?

d) Describe four necessary conditions for the formation of a delta.

22. Explain the relationship between soil types and human activities

Prepared by Teacher of Geography and Environment: NSHIMIYIMNA JANVIER Tel: 0783521421

GOODLUCK ALL OF YOU!!!

