

E.S.Marie Adelaide

Senior One

Geography and Environment

Q1. Define the terms below

- a) Geography
- b) Environment
- c) Geology
- d) Geomorphology
- e) Meteorology
- f) Climatology
- g) A Map
- h) A sketch map
- i) Aerial photography
- j) Atlas
- k) An atlas index
- l) Astronomy
- m) Universe
- n) Telescope
- o) Galaxy
- p) Constellation

Q2. In a geographical sense, environment refers to all the external conditions surrounding an organism (plants, animals and human beings) and which influence over its behavior or activities.

Explain the two branches of environment.

Q3. Discuss the Importance of studying Geography

Q4. Describe the sources of geographical information

Q5. Using examples explain the relationship between geography and other subjects

Q6. Explain six elements of a good map.

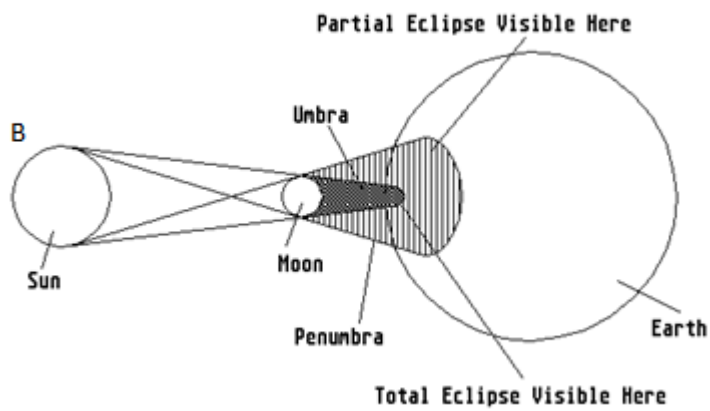

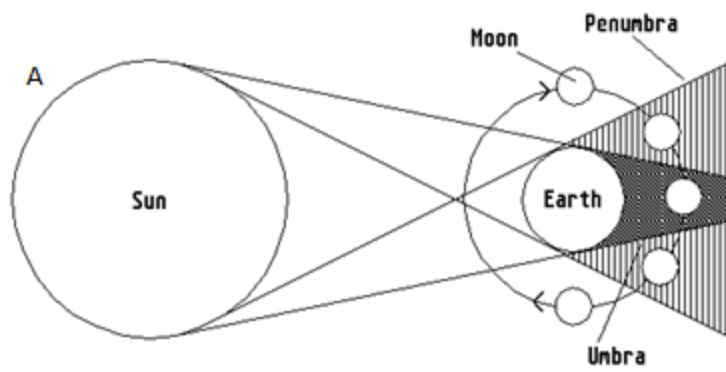

Q7. Identify ways of representing relief on a map.

Q8. Differentiate a map and an aerial photograph.

Q9. Using diagram explain the following phenomena:

Perihelion and Aphelion

Q10. Observe the Diagrams below and answer questions on them.

- Give the difference shown by the two diagrams above A and B
- What causes the above phenomena to occur?

Q11. By help of illustration Describe the phases of the moon.