

KAMONYI DISTRICT

RUNDA SECTOR

E.S. MARIE ADELAIDE

ENTREPRENEURSHIP QUESTIONS FOR SENIOR ONE

1. explain the following terms:
  - a) personal development
  - b) dignity of work
  - c) personal skills
2. list any 4 reasons why work is valued to society
3. differentiate entrepreneur from intrapreneur
4. identify the desirable qualities at school
5. explain types of work according to activity
6. Explain the concept of entrepreneurship
7. State the desirable characteristics of an entrepreneur
8. Explain the role of an entrepreneur in developing entrepreneurship
9. Distinguish an entrepreneur, enterprising person and an intrapreneur
10. desirable characteristics of successful entrepreneur
11. why do we study entrepreneurship?
12. Explain how our country Rwanda is country of entrepreneurial culture
13. Success stories in Rwanda
Rwanda is filled with success stories. Read about three successful Rwandans.
  - a) Ishimwe Claudien Ngezahayo from Kicukiro develops new software programs (the programs used by a computer). He works for Jembi Health Systems where he develops software for Rwanda Health Enterprise Architecture, a project that aims to improve health care in Rwanda.
  - b) Eric Kabera is a journalist and filmmaker. He is famous for producing films such as the documentary 100 days. He is the president of the Rwanda Cinema Centre (RCC). This organisation teaches film-making to young people and organises the annual Rwanda Film Festival.
  - c) Jean-Phillippe Kayobotsi worked for large corporations and studied abroad. Today, he is the owner of Brioche, a bakery and coffee shop. He started the business a few years ago and now owns four shops in Kigali.

Questions

- a. Describe the responsibilities of Ishimwe Claudien Ngezahayo.
- b. Is Mr Ngezahayo an entrepreneur, an enterprising person or an intrapreneur? Provide a reason for your answer.
- c. Why can you say that Eric Kabera is an enterprising person?
- d. What idea did Jean-Phillippe Kayobotsi have a few years ago?
- e. Is Jean-Phillippe Kayobotsi an entrepreneur? Explain your answer.
- f. Do you think that enterprising persons often become entrepreneurs? Explain your answer.

STAY HOME STAY SAFE

14 Emelienne Nyiramana was a looking for job opportunities. She enjoyed sewing and making clothes so she developed Cocoki Cooperative with other women who had similar skills. The cooperative sells clothes and crafts in Rwanda and abroad. Her goal is to expand the business by training more women and by learning more skills such as selling and managing the money of a business.

- a. Write the definition of an entrepreneur in your own words.
- b. Explain why enterprising people often become entrepreneurs. You can choose to use the story of Emelienne Nyiramana.
- c. Which skills did Emelienne use to start a business?
- d. Which skills did Emelienne lack and how does she aim to gain these skills?
- e. Which desirable qualities of an entrepreneur do you think that Emelienne has?

15 A friend wants to start an Internet café in Muhanga and is asking for your help.

- a) Explain how an Internet café could match the needs of customers in Muhanga.
- b) Suggest ways that your friend's business could be different from existing Internet cafés in Muhanga.
- c) Recommend skills that your friend should have before opening the business.

16 An entrepreneur needs to fill many roles to be successful. In your own words, explain how an entrepreneur can:

- a) scan the environment for business opportunities
- b) identify business opportunities
- c) find and allocate resources
- d) set up the business
- e) manage the business.

17 Give ideas for how you can promote positive values about work.

18 Explain why dignity of work is important to Rwandans?

19 List personal qualities needed by:

- a) Students at school environment
- b) Person who engage in business activities
- c) Person who engage in society activities